

CONGRATULATIONS!

---

Steve Zylius / UC Irvine

“I am tremendously grateful to my UCI peers and colleagues for granting me this award,” says Jean-Claude Falmagne, professor emeritus of cognitive sciences and recipient of the 2015 Lauds & Laurels Extraordinarius honor. “It is especially meaningful to me because UCI has been, for many reasons and for many years, my scientific home.”

---

Lauds & Laurels to salute 18 campus luminaries

Cognitive scientist-turned-mathematician and educational software entrepreneur Jean-Claude Falmagne will receive prestigious Extraordinarius award

The UC Irvine Alumni Association’s highest honor, the Lauds & Laurels Extraordinarius award, will this year go to Jean-Claude Falmagne, professor emeritus of cognitive sciences, for his groundbreaking work in mathematical cognition and his innovative design of mathematical instruction software.